APRIL IN PARIS

Marriages, they say, are made in heaven. Al's and Bet's was made in Hull. He's a dour, no-nonsense out-of-work brickie, getting used to a life with little promise. Bet is addicted to magazine competitions and when she actually wins one, they are faced with their first trip abroad - a romantic Break for Two in Paris. How will they cope? Paris, they soon discover, is nothing like their sheltered existence in Hull. And will they still have a marriage when they get home?

John Godber's classic tale of Brits abroad hits Ipswich, with unique performances in restaurants. While you enjoy your meal, Switchseats - a Suffolk-based Theatre Company of professional actors and directors, dedicated to mounting fantastic plays in unusual spaces - provide the entertainment.

"A genuinely touching and likeable comedy"
The Guardian
